

Mission Regional Medical Center

August is National Immunization and Influenza Vaccine Awareness Month so it's a good time to check vaccine records to make sure the entire family is up-to-date on all vaccines. Vaccines protect against a number of serious and potentially life-threatening diseases including measles, whooping cough and chicken pox.

Topic: “National Immunization Awareness”

When: Thursday, August 18, 2022

Time: 2:30 p.m. – 3:30 p.m.
